Examination Regulations 2014 for the Honour School of Mathematics and Statistics are available online at http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/examregs/ (where you should open the “Contents” listing and select SPECIAL REGULATIONS FOR THE HONOUR SCHOOL OF MATHEMATICS AND STATISTICS).

The Examination Conventions for 2014-2015 can be found at http://www.stats.ox.ac.uk/current_students/bammath/examinations

Dissertations

In Part C each candidate shall offer a dissertation on a statistics project. This project counts for three eighths of your assessment in Part C. The time devoted to preparing this dissertation should be similar to the total time invested in studying three sixteen-hour lecture courses, including attending lectures, doing problem sheets, attending classes and revising for a final exam. It requires a substantial time commitment from the student from Michaelmas term.

Where projects contain a substantial amount of programming, candidates are encouraged to include key elements of their commented code in an appendix to the dissertation. This appendix will not contribute towards the word-count.

The dissertation should not exceed the equivalent of 10,000 words (excluding diagrams, tables, references and texts of computer programs). Unnecessarily lengthy projects may be penalised.

TWO COPIES of your dissertation should be handed in at the Examination Schools by the deadline of 12 noon on Monday of week 10 of Hilary Term (23 March 2015).

Dissertations may be printed double-sided. Both copies of the dissertation should be bound. Hard bindings are not required and cheaper forms of soft binding, such as thermal binding or comb binding, are in most cases perfectly adequate. Loose leaves in ring binders or held together by paper clips are not acceptable.

The copies of your dissertation should be identified by your candidate number only and should be submitted in an envelope addressed to the Chairman of Examiners, FHS Mathematics and Statistics Part C. Please make sure that you do not write your name or college on any part of your work, but you should put your candidate number on every page.

You also need to complete a Declaration of Authorship. This should be included in the envelope with the copies of your dissertation. This declaration will be removed by the Chairman of Examiners, and the assessors of your work will not be able to identify you.

In the same envelope, a PDF version of the dissertation, on CD or USB stick, identical to the hard copy, must also be submitted. The examiners intend that the electronic copy of your dissertation will be screened by Turnitin for plagiarism.
I would like to remind you of the importance of avoiding plagiarism or any suspicion of plagiarism, as explained in the ‘Guidance Notes’ on 4th year dissertations, which can be found at http://www.stats.ox.ac.uk/current_students/bammath/projects

Please note that it is important that both the hard copy and the electronic copy are submitted on time. You will be asked to confirm on the declaration of authorship that the work you are submitting electronically is identical in content with the hard copy.

Each dissertation will be marked independently by two examiners or assessors. A USM mark in the range 0–100 will be awarded. As detailed more fully in the ‘Guidance Notes’, marks will be awarded in the following proportions: 25% of the marks will be attributed to content, 50% to the mathematics/statistics or data analysis/simulation, and the remaining 25% to presentation (including reference to source material).

Penalties for late or non-submission of coursework

It is important that you submit your dissertation on time. You should be aware that the formal consequence of missing the deadline for handing in your coursework is withdrawal from the examination as if you had failed to take a written paper at the appointed time. At the very least, a penalty can be imposed for late submission. See below for fuller details. You are advised to consult the Senior Tutor of your college if for good cause you are unable to meet the stipulated deadline.

Note in particular that the Proctors do not look sympathetically on requests in university examinations for late submission of project reports, theses etc. on the grounds that back-up copies of data were not made or were stolen along with a computer. If you have important data on a personal computer or removable media, then make back-up copies and keep these safe.

Late submission of Part C dissertations will normally result in the following penalties:

Where permission for late submission has been granted by the Proctors, no penalty will be imposed.

Where permission for late submission has not been granted by the Proctors, the normal penalties based on a submission deadline of Monday 12 noon are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lateness</th>
<th>Cumulative mark penalty</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Up to 4 hours, i.e. up to Monday 4pm</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4-24 hours, i.e. up to Tues 12 noon</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>24-48 hours, i.e. up to Weds 12 noon</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>48-72 hours, i.e. up to Thurs 12 noon</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>72-96 hours, i.e. up to Fri 12 noon</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>96-101 hours, i.e. up to Fri 5pm</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The final mark cannot be negative, it is truncated at zero if necessary. The cumulative penalty above would be deducted from the dissertation mark, when the dissertation mark is expressed out of 100. For example, if a student submits a dissertation 20 hours late, and that dissertation in itself is worth 65 marks, then the penalty above means that s/he loses 10 marks and so the final mark is 55.

Where permission for late submission has not been granted by the Proctors and the dissertation is over 101 hours late, the Examiners would refer the case to the Proctors for guidance as to what penalty to impose.
