List of Approved Calculators

The Department of Statistics and the Mathematical Institute have issued a revised list of calculators approved for use in certain Mathematics and Statistics examination papers. The list of papers for which a calculator is permitted will be included in the first notice to candidates, which will be issued by the examiners in Hilary term. In case anyone wishes to buy a calculator now, the list of approved calculators is given below.

Candidates may use any calculator from the:

Casio fx-83 series;
Casio fx-85 series;
Sharp EL-531 series.
